WEDDING GUEST LIST

(Used to a assist Photographer(s) and Wedding Coordinator in capturing the event)

While specific names can be helpful when arranging different groups for family/friend photographs, it is more important that your photographer knows what relationships & combinations you desire to have photographed (or some to specifically NOT photograph together). You may categorize them by last name or family relationship. Most of the time, you start with the most immediate family members, including grandparents and then work your way out to the extended family and eventually friend combinations. All photographs will include the Bride (B) and Groom (G). Be sure to include any unique situations such as blended families, any deaths that might present awkward situations or friend relationships that might be as close as family members. Then it will be very helpful to add actual names if you have any wedding planners or members of the wedding party that wish to help facilitate and rally the groups. The most important thing is for no one to be left out!

EXAMPLES:

- PLEASE PROVIDE NAMES & RELATIONSHIP DESCRIPTIONS FOR THE WEDDING PARTY.

- B & G with B's Parents and/or siblings (or Split into two groups if separated/remarried families)
- B & G with B's Parents & Grandparents (state if single or if spouse is attending)
- B & G with B's Extended Family (clarify how extended you wish; just siblings, aunts/uncles, cousins, etc.)
- B & G with combined B's Parents & Grandparents (if this is comfortable and/or desired)
- B & G with combined B's Extended Family

- B & G with G's Parents and/or siblings (or Split into two groups if separated/remarried families)
- B & G with G's Parents & Grandparents (state if single or if spouse is attending)
- B & G with G's Extended Family (clarify how extended you wish; just siblings, aunts/uncles, cousins, etc.)
- B & G with combined G's Parents & Grandparents (if this is comfortable and/or desired)
- B & G with combined G's Extended Family

- B & G with combined B & G's Parents (if this is comfortable and/or desired)
- B & G with combined B & G's Grandparents/Extended Family (if this is comfortable and/or desired)

- B & G with Coworkers/College Friends/Neighborhood Friends, etc.
